

Veritex Holdings, Inc. Completes Acquisition of IBT Bancorp, Inc.

July 1, 2015

DALLAS, July 1, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Veritex Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:VBTX), the parent holding company of Veritex Community Bank, announced the completion of the acquisition of IBT Bancorp, Inc. ("IBT") effective July 1, 2015. IBT was the parent holding company of Independent Bank of Texas ("Independent Bank"), a Texas state chartered full service commercial bank with total assets of $121 million, total loans of $99 million, and total deposits of $104 million at March 31, 2015. Independent Bank operates two banking locations in the Dallas metropolitan area.

Under the terms of the definitive agreement, Veritex issued approximately 1,185,185 shares of its common stock (with cash in lieu of fractional shares) and paid approximately $4.0 million in cash for the outstanding shares of IBT common stock in connection with the closing of the acquisition.

C. Malcolm Holland, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Veritex noted, "We are excited to welcome IBT into the Veritex family. Completion of the acquisition of IBT is an important part of our growth strategy. With the addition of a seasoned SBA lending group and two additional locations in the Dallas metropolitan area, we are well positioned to serve our customers even better than before. I would like to thank our teams in working expeditiously to complete the acquisition, and look forward to working together as we integrate our operations."

Veritex was advised by Stephens Inc. as financial advisor and Bracewell & Giuliani LLP as legal counsel. IBT was advised by Commerce Street Capital, LLC. as financial advisor and Haynie Rake Repass & Klimko, P.C. as legal counsel.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

"Safe Harbor" Statement under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This release may contain certain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the securities laws that are based on various facts and derived utilizing important assumptions, current expectations, estimates and projections about Veritex and its subsidiaries. Forward-looking statements include information regarding Veritex's future financial performance, business and growth strategy, projected plans and objectives, expectations concerning the costs associated with the merger and related transactions, timing for completion of the merger, integration of the acquired business, ability to achieve the anticipated cost savings and operational efficiencies, addition of new and expansion of existing product offerings, projected purchase accounting adjustments including estimated gross credit marks, pre-tax gains and write-ups, the accretive value of the acquisition, and other projections based on macroeconomic and industry trends, which are inherently unreliable due to the multiple factors that impact economic trends, and any such variations may be material. Statements preceded by, followed by or that otherwise include the words "believes," "expects," "anticipates," "intends," "projects," "estimates," "plans" and similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as "will," "should," "would," "may" and "could" are generally forward-looking in nature and not historical facts, although not all forward-looking statements include the foregoing. Further, certain factors that could affect our future results and cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed in the forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to whether Veritex can: successfully implement its growth strategy, including identifying acquisition targets and consummating suitable acquisitions; continue to sustain internal growth rate; provide competitive products and services that appeal to its customers and target market; continue to have access to debt and equity capital markets; and achieve our performance goals. These and various other factors are discussed in Veritex's Final Prospectus, dated October 10, 2014, filed pursuant to Rule 424(b)(4), Veritex's Annual Report on Form 10-K filed on March 27, 2015, and other reports and statements Veritex has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Copies of such filings are available for download free of charge from www.veritexbank.com under the Investor Relations tab.
